Notice of Achievement of “AAA” Rating in the MSCI ESG Ratings for the Second Consecutive Year

JINS HOLDINGS Inc. (the “Company”) announces that it has received an “AAA” rating, the highest rating in the MSCI^{*1} ESG Ratings, for the second consecutive year, as of March 2025.

The MSCI ESG Ratings analyze the extent of a company’s risk management in Environment, Society, and Governance, and evaluate it on a seven-point scale ranging from “AAA,” the highest rating, to “CCC,” the lowest rating, and are considered a global evaluation index for ESG investment.

In the ratings, the Company received high ratings under the four themes of product carbon footprint, labor management, privacy & data security, and corporate behavior.

The Company will continue to make steady progress on its initiatives to promote sustainability over the medium to long term together with its stakeholders in order to enhance its corporate value and realize a sustainable and prosperous society.

*1 MSCI is a financial service company based in New York, USA. Listed on the New York Stock Exchange, the company provides institutional investors across the globe, including large public pension funds, asset management companies, and hedge funds, with a variety of tools for investment decision-making.
