Net Protections' BNPL Service, NP Atobarai air, Is Now Provided to Osakagas Finance as a White-Label Solution

Net Protections, Inc. (headquartered in Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo; CEO: Shin Shibata; "Net Protections") is pleased to announce that NP Atobarai air is now provided to Osakagas Finance CO.,LTD (headquartered in Chuou-ku, Osaka; President: Masaaki Kishimoto). This will enable the Osaka Gas Service Chain — which handles gas appliance repairs, inspections, and home renovation services — to offer NP Atobarai air as a new payment option starting in December.

■Reason for introduction

Osakagas Finance has decided to adopt NP Atobarai air in order to improve the efficiency and productivity of cash-handling operations across the Osaka Gas Service Chain. By addressing issues such as cash discrepancies, loss risks, and the operational burden of cash counting and bank deposits, the company aims to strengthen internal governance and achieve greater operational efficiency.

■About NP Atobarai air

NP Atobarai air is a BNPL service for on-site services such as equipment repair and housekeeping. Payment can be made after the service is rendered. No sign-up, credit card, or cash preparation on the day of service is required to use. Merchants can focus on their main business as NP Atobarai air manages all the settlement operations from credit screening, invoicing, to payment collection between merchants and their customers. We also cover risks incurred from delinquency rates.
